

THE AEGIS STANDARD

Summer 2024

www.aegisuk.net

CONTENTS

AEGIS News

- 04 Welcome to the AEGIS Standard
- 05 New Members
- 08 The AEGIS Conference
- 10 AEGIS Welcomes New Trustees
- 14 Safeguarding Matters - Adam Lubbock

OPINION

- 16 The Challenges of UK Universities for International Pupils - Lander Hawes
- 18 Navigating VAT Addition on Independent School Fees - Daniel Cohen

Guardianship Organisation News

- 20 White House Guardians
- 21 Bright World Guardianships
- 22 Oxford Guardians
- 23 College Guardians
- 24 Edinburgh Guardian Angels
- 25 Shell Education

School News

- 26 Queen Ethelburga's
- 27 Abingdon School
- 28 Heathfield School
- 29 Queenswood School
- 30 Repton Prep
- 31 Handcross Park School
- 32 Tonbridge School
- 33 Dauntsey's
- 34 New Hall School
- 35 Chigwell School
- 36 Truro School
- 37 Moor Park School
- 38 St Mary's School Cambridge
- 39 Walhampton School
- 40 Haberdashers' Monmouth
- 41 The Oratory
- 42 Highfield and Brookham

Advertisers

- 43 ST Alphe Conferences
Leading Education
- 44 Suzy Slemen

QUEENSWOOD SCHOOL

Monica C: A Rising Star at Queenswood School

Meet Monica C, an 18 year old dynamo hailing from Shanghai, China, whose journey from the bustling streets of her hometown to the academic haven of Queenswood School in the UK is nothing short of inspirational. With a passion for fashion and an innate knack for creativity, Monica's story is one of courage, determination, and boundless artistic flair.

Having completed her GCSEs in Bath, Monica embarked on her A-Level journey at Queenswood School, where she found her true calling in Fine Art. For Monica, Art isn't just a subject; it's a lifelong passion that has fuelled her creativity since childhood. From doodles on paper to intricate masterpieces, Monica's artistic journey has been a testament to her unwavering dedication and talent.

What sets Queenswood apart for Monica is its nurturing environment that encourages students to push boundaries and explore the depths of their creativity. Here, Monica has found a community that fosters her artistic growth and empowers her to unleash her full potential. Surrounded by peers from across the globe, Monica has not only found friends for life but a sense of true belonging.

As Monica continues to carve her path at Queenswood School, she holds dreams of furthering her education at University of the Arts, London, where she plans to study theatre and performing arts. This study choice, intricately linked to her love of art, is a testament to her multifaceted talents and unwavering passion. Thanks to Queenswood's remarkable opportunities and state-of-the-art facilities, Monica feels confident in pursuing her dreams, knowing that she has the support and resources she needs to succeed.

'At Queenswood, boarding has been an incredible experience, and I have made friends from all over the world.'

Since joining Queenswood, Monica has blossomed into a confident and radiant individual, embodying the school's ethos of excellence and empowerment. Her infectious enthusiasm and spirit make her a natural choice as a Queenswood International Ambassador, a role she fulfils effortlessly. Well done Monica!

